Parents and Financial Information

In order to be considered for scholarships that make decisions based on need, you must provide information about your or your family's financial situation.

If you are emancipated, you will have the opportunity to fill out your own financial information. Click here to determine if you are legally emancipated.

Enter My Own Financial Information

If you are not legally emancipated, your parent/guardian will need to complete the financial information. Click the button below to enter information about your parent/guardian and send them and email providing them access to the financial information form.

+ Add Parent Information

- In the Student Center, click on the link “Parents and Financial Information”.
- Once here, click on the button “Add Parent Information.”

How to Add Parents/Guardians

The screenshot shows a web interface for 'Dollars to Scholars', a program of Scholarship America. On the left is a sidebar with navigation links: 'My Information' (Basic Information, Additional Schools, GPA, Test Scores, Class Rank, Other Financial Awards, Activities, Employment, Parents and Financial Information, Transcripts/References, Essays, Additional Documents), 'My Scholarships' (Find New Scholarships, Scholarship Applications), 'My Opportunities', and 'My Scholarship News'. The main content area features a modal window titled 'Add Parent Information'. This window contains the following fields: 'Primary Parent First Name', 'Primary Parent Last Name', 'Relation', 'Primary Parent Phone Number', 'Primary Parent Email Address', and a checkbox 'I am emancipated and want to fill out my own financial information' with a 'No' dropdown menu. At the bottom right of the modal are 'Save' and 'Cancel' buttons. An arrow points to the 'Save' button. Below the modal, there is a text block explaining that if the user is not legally emancipated, a parent/guardian must complete the financial information, followed by a green '+ Add Parent Information' button.

If your student is under 18, they can not complete their scholarship application process without your permission. Please click the "grant consent" button below to allow your student to compete for scholarship money available through Scholarship America and its partners.

In order for your student to compete for scholarships based on financial need, you must provide family financial information. This information will be kept strictly confidential and will not be viewable by anyone but you. The information will be used in calculations (similar to the FAFSA) to develop an expected family contribution which will be used to determine relative need. The only number visible to anyone other than you will be that final expected family contribution amount.

Granting Consent for Minors

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the Scholarship America website. A modal dialog box is open, displaying a consent form. The form has a title bar with a close button (X). The main text of the form reads: "I grant my consent for my student to provide the necessary information needed to complete the scholarship application process." To the right of this text is a small square checkbox, which is circled in blue. Below the text are "Save" and "Cancel" buttons. An arrow points from the text in the green callout box to the checkbox. The background of the website shows a sidebar with links like "Parent", "My Student", "My Information", "My Opportunities", "My Scholarship News", and "My Resources". The main content area has a heading "scholarship money available through Scholarship America and its partners." followed by a paragraph explaining the need for family financial information. Below this is a table with the heading "applicants" and one row for "Michelle Yu 550". At the bottom of the table are buttons for "Grant Consent", "Enter Financial Info", and "Submit Financial Info". The footer of the website includes copyright information and social media links.
