The 'Essays' section is highlighted with a red circle. Below it, there's a text box for the 'Goals and Aspirations Essay' and another for the 'Unusual Circumstances Essay'. Arrows point from the blue box on the left to these two essay sections.

Points are awarded to applicants based on how well they are able to express their goals and plans for the future. In addition, some students have lived through circumstances that should be understood by the committee reviewing the application. The two following essays give you the opportunity to tell the selection committee something about yourself that is not found in all the data above. Please take the time to complete these essay questions.

Goals and Aspirations Essay: Make a statement of your plans as they relate to your educational and career objectives and future goals.

* Goals Essay

Unusual Circumstances Essay: Please describe how and when any unusual family or personal circumstances have affected your achievement in school, work experience, or your participation in school and community activities.

* Unusual Circumstances Essay
