

Twin Towers Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship honors the memory of three Marblehead citizens who were killed in the tragic terrorist attack on the World Trade Center Twin Towers in New York City on September 11, 2001:

- Eric Hans Isbrandtsen, a graduate of Marblehead High School
- Dr. Frederick Rimmele III, age 32, a family practice physician at Beverly and Hunt Hospitals, who was a passenger on United Airlines Flight 175.
- William M. Weems, age 46, a businessman who was also a passenger on Flight 175.