AUDREY R. GOLDSTEIN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
Audrey R. Goldstein

Audrey R. Goldstein spent 23 years teaching in Marblehead, first as an English and history teacher at the former Marblehead Junior High School then as an English teacher at Marblehead High School for 17 years. She attended Salem State College and received a B.A. in English followed a year later by an M.A. in Non-Western History. As a wife and mother in the early 1970s, she graduated with distinction at the top of her class. Audrey died on February 8, 2005 at the age of 71 after a lengthy battle with stomach cancer.
