

THE PATRICIA KAMMES SCHOLARSHIP
Patricia Kammes

Pat was a well-respected and gifted clinical social worker. She received her B.A. degree in Psychology and Social Work from the University of Dayton in 1968, and her M.S.W. from Simmons College School of Social Work in 1974. Her energetic career spanned twenty-five years, providing not only quality service to her clients, but also support and consultation to the professional community. She died suddenly on September 4, 1997, leaving her husband and two young daughters.
