How to apply?

2023 Scholarships

Application Deadline: April 1, 2023

Apply online: www.northdakota.dollarsforscholars.org

- Create or edit your student profile by logging in under the Students & Parents tab at www.northdakota.dollarsforscholars.org.
- Remember the deadline for North Dakota Dollars for Scholars Scholarships is April 1. The deadline for local or national scholarships may be different.
- By editing your profile, you will be matched to scholarships to which you meet the minimum eligibility requirements. You may be matched to Dollars for Scholars scholarships offered by your local chapter (if you graduated from a high school with a local chapter), state chapter and even national opportunities.
- To fill the gap of awarding scholarships to middle income students, there are a few scholarships that will require financial information (EFC from the FAFSA) to be matched to them. We recommend providing this information to ensure you are matched to as many eligible scholarships as possible. It isn't a requirement to complete the Financial Info section but know there may be some scholarships you may have been eligible for that you will not be matched to.
- You do NOT need to complete the References section of your profile to be matched to scholarships from North Dakota Dollars for Scholars. You may still apply for scholarships even if your profile is less than 100% complete.
- Next visit the My Scholarships section of your profile to view and apply for scholarships to which you have been matched. Click each scholarship to answer additional questions and to submit an online application. You must submit to each scholarship to be considered.
- Be sure to update your profile annually and reapply for new scholarships between January 1 and April 1.
