FLOODWOOD GRADUATES SUCCEED

Ashley (Kozumplik) Ralston, daughter of Anthony and Lynette Kozumplik, graduated from Floodwood High School with the class of 2006. She earned her Associates of Applied Science in Nursing and Associates of Arts Degree, from Hibbing Community College.

When Ashley Kozumplik left Floodwood High School, diploma in hand, she had set certain goals for herself. She headed straight to Hibbing Community College to fulfill her dream of becoming a nurse. She currently works at Essentia Health-Virginia Hospital, where she is a registered nurse. She floats between the Medical Surgical, Inpatient Rehabilitation and Telemetry units where she performs various healthcare specialties related to the patient plan and goals. She performs head to toe assessments. She is responsible for computer based documentation, patient education and care planning.

Ashley makes her home in Virginia, MN, with her husband, Jeffrey. They have a 2 year old daughter, Mila, and a second baby due May 1st.

Ashley's message for the community of Floodwood: Whether it be mentally or financially challenging, education does not always come easily, but with the continued support of our family, friends and community, succeeding at education is much less daunting and far more rewarding. Thank you for helping me to achieve my career.

The people of Floodwood can be proud of their support to young women and men, such as Ashley.
