

THE HELEN HAMMOND SCHOLARSHIP
Helen Hammond

Helen Hammond graduated from MHS in 1931 and graduated from Salem Teacher's College, now Salem State College, in 1935 and embarked on a nearly 40-year career educating the children of Marblehead. Ms. Hammond's motto was "to make the best of any situation." Upon her death in 2007, she donated more than $50,000 to the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation, now Marblehead Dollars for Scholars, demonstrating the high value she placed on the importance of education.
