Chapter	Edgewood High School Dollars for Scholars
Name of Sponsoring Organization	Anonymous Donor
Scholarship Description	Harry R. Warner was born in Bloomington, spent time in Madison, Bedford, and finally lived in Ellettsville for the last 30 years of his life. Harry worked for RCA for a number of years, but realized his passion and creativity for woodworking and began his own woodworking business as a master woodworker, woodcarver, and designer. Harry was a man of many gifts and talents and often blessed his family and friends with interesting tidbits of information that only Harry could know. He was always eager to share his wisdom and generosity with those he cared about. Harry cared about the town of Ellettsville, serving on the Town Council and assisting with the Fall Festival. He was interested in the youth of the area and realized the importance of an education. It seems only appropriate to honor his life by supporting two youths as they begin their college careers. This scholarship goes to one male and one female student who have displayed financial need.
