Mind The Gap (Year): A Break Before College Might Do Some Good: Postponing the start of college for one year is becoming more common. As WGBH's Kirk Carapezza reports, more schools are encouraging students to take a gap year - and even helping pay for them.

Risky Business: Why Student Loans Are The Worst Way To Fund College: The way we currently fund a big share of our higher education system, through mortgage-style loans, is one of the worst possible ways to pay for college.

2 – Scroll down to the “Awarded Applications” table and click on the Accept Scholarship button for the scholarship(s) you have been awarded. This will pull up the Student Acknowledgement Form.

Awarded Applications

Below are the scholarships you have been awarded. Click “Accept Scholarship” to provide the required information before the deadline date or risk losing your scholarship.

Scholarship	Status	Decision Date	Form Due Date
Test Scholarship 28 - 2014	Awarded	04/17/2014	08/31/2013	Accept Scholarship

3 – Confirm the information you’ve entered is correct and edit it if it’s not. College you are attending and your student ID number from the college is required. If you haven’t already entered it, you can enter it now. If you don’t have your student ID yet, enter 0000 and be sure to update it as soon as you get it in the Schools section of your profile. Once everything is entered/confirmed, scroll to the bottom and click the button agree to the terms and conditions.

I agree to permit Test123 to confer with my postsecondary institution to verify my enrollment during the term of my award.

I understand that I must use this scholarship for the upcoming school year, unless I delay entrance or need to delay the use of the award as indicated by my financial aid package. Should I choose not to attend a postsecondary institution, or should I fail to complete the proper forms on time, I understand that my scholarship will be null and void.

I understand that this form must be updated on or before 08/31/2013. My failure to update this Scholarship Acknowledge form by this date will result in the forfeiture of my scholarship.

I agree that by choosing to accept this award from Test123, that Test123, its parent organization, Scholarship America®, and its affiliated programs and regional offices, may use my name, my photograph or likeness, the name of my community, the name and address of my school, the amount of the award, and the name of the postsecondary institution I will attend in press releases, public announcements, and other fundraising or promotional materials in all media (including the Internet), to advance the nonprofit objectives of Test123, Scholarship America, and their affiliated programs.

Terms and conditions not yet agreed to.
