

Scholarships Administered by South Dearborn Dollars for Scholars - 2015

Katie Bruner Memorial Scholarship

The Katie Bruner Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to a South Dearborn High School senior pursuing a post-secondary degree in either the field of science/medicine or performing arts. Criteria includes being active in student government and community service. Katie was a 2002 SD graduate & South Dearborn Dollars for Scholars recipient.

The 2015 Katie Bruner Scholarship recipients are Jordan Ingle ($1000), Austin Ridlen ($500), Sydney Senger ($500), & Emma Veid ($500).

David & Kay Bruner Chalk Education Scholarship

This scholarship is awarded each year to a senior who will be pursuing a teaching degree in honor of David & Kay Chalk, former South Dearborn educators.

This scholarship was established to encourage students going into teaching, particularly elementary/early childhood education. Kay Bruner Chalk grew up influenced by her mother, a Ball State University professor. Kay had a deep concern for the education of young children. It is the family's hope that those awarded these scholarships would follow in her footsteps to help young children.

The 2015 David & Kay Bruner Chalk Education Scholarship ($500) recipient is Jordan Ingle.

Amy Cotton Memorial Scholarship

Amy Cotton was a 1991 graduate of South Dearborn High School. She passed away in 1994 following a hard fought battle with Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma. The Amy Cotton Memorial Scholarship has been established by the Cotton family through Dollars for Scholars as a tribute to the life of this amazing young woman. Amy's interests in school included music, citizenship in our local community, friendship, and family. The recipient of this scholarship has exhibited these characteristics as well as others.

The 2015 Amy Cotton Memorial Scholarship ($500) recipient is Morgan Jones.

Marvin and Sabra Duerstock Scholarship

Marvin Duerstock dedicated over forty years to education. He was the first Associate Principal of South Dearborn High School for three years then became the Principal of SDHS for seventeen years. The youngest of nine children and having lost both parents at a young age, he had to support himself throughout college. Because of his personal struggles, he initiated and was a driving force behind South Dearborn's "Dollars for Scholars" program.

Sabra Carmack Duerstock enjoyed a career as a Language Arts teacher at Aurora Middle School and South Dearborn Middle School for twenty-three years.

This scholarship was established to assist students who have overcome challenges in order to pursue a post-secondary education.

The 2015 Marvin & Sabra Duerstock Scholarship ($1000 each) recipients are Sydney Senger and Kirsten Wessell.

Kathi Green Memorial Scholarship

The Kathi Green Memorial Scholarship is awarded each year to a senior active in student government & community/school volunteer work. Kathi was a SD staff member who was one of the founding members of South Dearborn Dollars for Scholars. The leadership and work Kathi dedicated to Dollars for Scholars will continue for years to come due to her ability to lead others towards a common goal.

In 2010, this scholarship became a permanent endowment at the Dearborn Community Foundation.

The 2015 Kathi Green Memorial Scholarship ($600) recipient is Madeline Moisio.

Deborah Kaye (Meyers) Guss Memorial Scholarship

Debbie Meyers Guss raised two South Dearborn graduates before passing away in 1995. Debbie's family established this scholarship fund in her memory, with the hope that the scholarship could defray the cost of the textbooks required in continuing education endeavors. Because Debbie worked in the medical field, the scholarship is awarded to a student pursuing an education in the medical field.

In 2010, this scholarship became a permanent endowment at the Dearborn Community Foundation.

The 2015 Deborah Kaye Meyers Guss Memorial Scholarship ($500) recipient is Morgan Zoller.

Vickie Luhrsen Memorial Scholarship

Vicki J. Luhrsen was a lifelong resident of the Dillsboro / Aurora area. She was an Educator for 29 years with 28 years being served at Manchester Elementary School. She was an advocate for children and education.

Vicki served her profession and community in numerous capacities: South Dearborn Educational Association President for many years, Indiana State Teachers Association District Council member, Indiana State Teachers Association Board of Directors member, past member of numerous local and state education organizations, National Education Association delegate to the annual convention, Manchester Elementary Enrichment Play director, Manchester Elementary concessions director, member of the Aurora First Baptist Church, Treasurer of the Indiana State Teachers Association Women's Caucus, and consistent/generous donor to the Fund for Children and Public Education.

Her scholarship pays tribute to her and all who were touched by her endless generosity and is awarded to a SD graduate who attended Manchester Elementary School.

The 2015 Vickie Luhrsen Memorial Scholarship ($600) recipient is Kayla Hensley.

Michael Marine Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established by the family of Michael Marine, a 2006 SD graduate. Criteria includes being active in community service, plans to pursue a teaching degree and students that best represent Michael's character.

In 2009, Michael's family established a permanent endowment at the Dearborn Community Foundation and continues to hold fundraising events in his memory each year.

This year, the family generously decided to award a $1000 four year renewable scholarships ($250 per year for 4 years)

The 2015 Michael Marine Memorial Scholarship recipient is Courtney Johnson.

Matt McIntosh Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was started by the family & friends of Matt “Skinny” McIntosh, a 2008 SD graduate and DFS recipient. Matt was a talented musician and this scholarship will be awarded to a graduating senior who is a 4 year music (band or choir) student and has shown a true dedication to the SDHS music department.

This scholarship became a permanent endowment at the Dearborn Community Foundation in 2014.

The 2015 Matt McIntosh Memorial Scholarship ($500) recipient is Samantha Barlow.

Mindy McIntosh Memorial Scholarship

In memory of Mindy McIntosh, a 2001 SD graduate and Ivy Tech student. Mindy worked full time and attended Ivy Tech part-time and was pursuing an accounting degree. She took classes as she could afford them and her family established this scholarship in the hopes of helping other students who need financial assistance in order to attend college.

The two year renewable $500 scholarship ($250 per year) will be awarded to a graduating senior who will be pursuing a degree at Ivy Tech Lawrenceburg.

This scholarship became a permanent endowment at the Dearborn Community Foundation in 2014.

The 2015 Mindy McIntosh Memorial Scholarship recipient is Cheyenne Burress.

Karlita Meyer Memorial Scholarship

Karlita was a 1983 graduate of South Dearborn High School who was diagnosed with Juvenile Rheumatoid Arthritis at the age of 8. Although her illness caused her to undergo numerous operations and overcome many obstacles in life, she always had a positive attitude, an infectious smile, and a true caring of others. This is awarded to a senior that represents those characteristics and shows determination to overcome anything that life sends their way. Karlita was dedicated to her family, church and her community. These aspects may also be considered in the selection of recipients.

The 2015 Karlita Meyer Memorial Scholarship ($250 each) recipients are Michael Anderson & Carley Ochs.

Chris Midlam Memorial Scholarship

This memorial scholarship is awarded to an “outstanding member of the music department, who is pursuing a post-secondary education” (does not have to be music major in college). Chris Midlam was a talented musician & SDHS band member who was a member of the SDHS Class of 1996.

In 2011, his family established a permanent endowment with the Dearborn Community Foundation so that a scholarship can be awarded each year.

The 2015 Chris Midlam Memorial Scholarship ($500) recipient is Janessa King.

Donald Miller Memorial Scholarship Fund

This scholarship was established by the family of Donald Miller, a 1957 graduate of Taylor High School. Donald joined the Pipefitter's Union in 1961 where he attended school two nights a week while working in his trade during the day. Donald made welding his career and was a member of the Plumbers, Pipefitters and Mechanical Equipment Service Union Local #392 in Cincinnati for 45 years until his passing in 2006. Each year, at least one senior will be awarded this scholarship who plans to pursue a career in a trade such as welding, plumbing, etc. His family established this trade scholarship to honor his memory.

The 2015 Donald Miller Memorial Scholarship ($250) recipient is Michael Anderson.

Doug Mills Athletic Scholarship Fund

Doug was a 1979 graduate of SDHS, the very first class to graduate from SDHS. He then graduated from Marian College in Indianapolis, Indiana four years later. He worked for over 25 years at Kidd Chrysler Dodge/Jeff Wyler. Throughout his high school and college years, he was very involved with sports - mainly basketball, baseball and golf. Doug spent his adult life coaching various teams and always cheering and supporting his children, Andrew & Sheila. Doug died suddenly on 1/14/12 due to a pulmonary embolism, as a result of gall bladder surgery done on 12/28/11. At that time, the family requested memorials be made to the Doug Mills Athletic Scholarship fund. We thank all those who donated and our wish is to ensure we keep Doug's memory very much alive and each year have the ability to help & support a SDHS graduate who is looking to obtain further education.

The 2015 Doug Mills Athletic Scholarship ($500) recipient is Kirsten Wessell.

Coach Jim O'Brien Memorial Soccer Scholarship

Jim O'Brien became active in the Dillsboro SAY soccer league in 1986. As his kids and the kids he coached in SAY reached high school age, there was still a strong desire to play soccer, so "Coach" established the South Dearborn Soccer Club. In 1994, soccer became a school sanctioned sport with Jim O'Brien as its head coach. He remained in this position until his retirement following the 2008 season. After his death in 2009, South Dearborn Dollars for Scholars & the South Dearborn Soccer Boosters established this scholarship fund in his honor. Each year, at least one senior boy and one senior girl soccer player will be awarded a scholarship from this fund.

The 2015 Coach Jim O'Brien Memorial Scholarship ($250 each) recipients are Tanner Anderson & Abigail Fortner.

RC Patel Memorial Scholarship

One scholarship will be awarded to a graduating senior who will be pursuing a post-secondary education in a business or marketing field and has strong community service values. This scholarship was started by Girish Patel, a 1995 SD graduate and Dollars for Scholars recipient in honor of his mother.

The 2015 RC Patel Memorial Scholarship ($500) recipient is Nolan Bridges.

Jan Powell Memorial Scholarship

Jan Powell was a 1980 graduate of South Dearborn High School. She attended the College of Mt St. Joseph and was the Financial Coordinator for Corporate Engineering at Procter & Gamble. Her parents established this permanent scholarship in 2006 with a gift of P&G stock from Jan's estate.

The 2015 Jan Powell Memorial Scholarship ($500 each) recipients are Dalton Ranshaw & Shaun Vilaro.

Cindy McGraw / Mackenzie Stuart Memorial Scholarship Fund

Over thirty years ago, in 1982, William "Bill" McGraw, initiated the Cindy McGraw Scholarship after Cindy's passing in a car accident during her college years. Her father created the Scholarship to recognize his daughter's passions / contributions to sportsmanship and academic achievement. Of note, a few of past recipients of the Cindy McGraw Scholarship include Madison Stuart in 2004, Mackenzie Stuart, in 2007, and Alyssa McGraw (Cindy's niece) in 2012.

Tragically, Mackenzie Stuart passed away due to a car accident during her senior year of college. Her parents, Greg and Carolyn Stuart, initiated the Mackenzie Stuart Scholarship to recognize their daughter's passions and contributions to sportsmanship and academic achievement.

This year, due in part to the remarkable similarities of both Cindy and Mackenzie as wonderful, young, athletic ladies of SDHS, the Mackenzie Stuart Scholarship joined the Cindy McGraw Scholarship to create the Cindy McGraw / Mackenzie Stuart Memorial Athletic Scholarship.

- Cindy McGraw was a 1979 graduate of South Dearborn High School, during which time, she was very active in school athletics, participating in 4 years of Basketball, 3 years of Volleyball, 1 year of Track; Pep Club, Concert Choir, Varsity Choir, Concert Band and school intramurals. After SDHS, Cindy attended Hanover College where she served in 1980-81 as the Hanover College Women's Basketball Team Manager, member of Phi Mu Sorority and a Popular Member of the Hanover College Campus Community. As a testimony to Cindy's contributions at Hanover College, Hanover College itself held "The Cindy McGraw Memorial Women's Basketball Tournament" for over 12 years following her passing.
- Mackenzie Stuart was a 2007 graduate of South Dearborn High School. She ran cross country & track for South Dearborn and in track, she was a 4 year letter winner and qualified for the state meet twice. She was also a ten year member of 4-H and a 4 year member of South Dearborn's academic team - when she was a freshman, she qualified for the State Academic Meet along with her sister Madison. Upon high school graduation, she received high academic honors and was awarded a Lilly Scholarship. She was a member of Butler University's soccer team and was one semester away from graduating with majors in Computer Science and Mathematics. She was awarded a BS degree and inducted into the Computer Science Honor Society from Butler posthumously. And the Math Department put up a permanent plaque with her photo in their hall to recognize her scholarship. She graduated with a double major in math and computer science.

The Cindy McGraw / Mackenzie Stuart Memorial Athletic Scholarship will be awarded to a female student who demonstrates leadership, sportsmanship and a positive attitude in female athletics.

The 2015 Cindy McGraw / Mackenzie Stuart Memorial Scholarship ($500) recipient is Emma Veid.

Jim Thayer Memorial Scholarship

Jim Thayer was a teacher and coach at South Dearborn High School and was an inspiration to students and adults alike because of the vigor and enthusiasm he displayed in his everyday life and the perseverance and courage he displayed as he fought his battle with cancer.

Jim was an outstanding educator who impacted the lives of countless students regardless of their academic ability or social status. This scholarship is awarded to a senior who plans to pursue a post secondary education and who has displayed a positive mental attitude and demonstrated perseverance, compassion, courage and a sincere dedication to South Dearborn High School.

The 2015 Jim Thayer Memorial Scholarship ($500) recipient is Dustin Beach.

Aurora Fire Department Scholarship

One of the two new scholarships started in 2012 by our Bucket List Contest at the Aurora Farmers Fair. This scholarship was established by the Aurora Fire Department. It will be awarded each year to a graduating senior who is the child or grandchild of a current or retired member of any of the local fire departments.

The 2015 Aurora Fire Department Scholarship ($250) recipient is Kailin Mitchell.

Barrott Family Scholarship

Two graduating seniors will each receive a $2500 scholarship. Important criteria: community service performed in all four years of high school, dedication to the Dearborn County community and the chosen field of post-secondary education.

This scholarship was established by Jason Barrott in honor of his grandmother, Emma Jean Barrott, who was very active in community service in the Aurora area.

The 2015 Barrott Family Scholarship recipients ($2500 each) are Makenzie Deamron & Austin Ridlen.

All proceeds fund the scholarship. It is awarded to a graduating senior who has participated in SDHS art classes and plans to pursue an art, graphic design, video or art related degree in college.

The 2015 Future Artists Scholarship ($250) recipient is Taylor Baresel.

Good Knight Volunteer Award

SDDFS rec'd a grant (from Scholarship America) to start a new scholarship in 2013. We had to make a written presentation on the importance of a renewable scholarship and how we would administer and fund a 4 year renewable scholarship for South Dearborn students. We received a $10,000 grant and this year, one well deserving student will receive our 3rd annual Good Knight Volunteer Award Scholarship in the amount of $2000 ($500 per year).

This scholarship is a permanent endowment at the Dearborn Community Foundation and a financial goal has been set so that the endowment eventually will fund the entire scholarship.

The 2015 Good Knight Dream Award ($2000) recipient is Adam Hill.

Ivy Tech / Dollars for Scholars Matching Scholarships

Each year, SDDFS & Ivy Tech Lawrenceburg team up to award scholarships to deserving SDHS graduates who plan to attend Ivy Tech Lawrenceburg. Ivy Tech matches a SDDFS scholarship with another $200 scholarship.
